2018 California and Federal Employment Poster

Every California employer must post a compliant Employment Poster in a conspicuous place in the workplace where all employees and applicants can see it. The poster also must include information about your workers' compensation benefits, payday schedule and emergency contacts. You may need to order several to ensure that your business, branches and satellite offices are displaying the poster according to the law. Failure to comply can result in severe penalties and fines by the state of California. If any of your company's workers are Spanish-speaking, you will need to order the Spanish version.

HR Quick Guide for California Employers 2018 Edition

The Quick Guide includes color-coded easy reference sections. Required and recommended forms for California businesses available to download using a special URL provided in the book.

Required Pamphlets Kit

State and federal regulatory agencies require that employers provide each employee with pamphlets on Sexual Harassment, Workers' Compensation Rights & Benefits, State Disability Insurance, Paid Family Leave, and Unemployment Insurance. This kit contains 20 copies of each of the five pamphlets that must be distributed to employees – available in both English and Spanish.
